Comfort-Dri™ Seatback – Unique in the Industry!

There's nothing else like it. Our patented Comfort-Dri™ seatback is the most supportive seat on an exercise cycle. Its vented design helps you stay cool during your workout, while its multi-positioning option ensures ultimate comfort.

Convenient Adjustment Handles

These handles are easily reached while exercising. One helps you find the perfect exercise position, the other adjusts the angle of the seatback.

Adjustable Stabilizers

These stabilizers keep the machine from shifting or rocking during workouts.

Built-In Fan

An integrated three-speed fan helps keep users cool during workouts.

Easy On, Easy Off

No more stepping over bulky consoles. This cycle's unique step-through access makes it convenient and inviting for all users.

Oversized Pedals

Our oversized pedals feature an innovative, convenient one-touch strap adjustment. That means more comfort for your riders.

Handy Transport Wheels

Transport wheels make this cycle easy to move, especially if you're rearranging your facility

C570r DISPLAY

Forget trying to navigate through confusing menus. Our super-friendly interface makes it easy for users to find the program they want. Like CardioAdvisor™ – the only heart-rate tool of its kind in the industry. Users can also quickly view workout data on % of goal completed, distance, time, rpm, speed, watts, mets, workout level, calories, and calories per hour.

C580r DISPLAY

Working out has never been as enjoyable as it is on the C580r. Its 10.2" LCD is entertainment ready for TV, with full-screen or split-screen video/workout data options. Users will also appreciate its incredibly user-friendly menus that make it easy to choose the program they want and start working out in seconds. Plus, key to any facility, the display offers multi-source inputs (1-3 plug RCA and 1 co-axial) for added flexibility, and two headphone jacks to reduce downtime.

Easy Heart-Rate Monitoring

Ever notice that most upright cycles have just one set of contact pads? Our bikes have two, so all riders can keep tabs on their heart rate, no matter what their riding position.

Cutting-Edge Design

Whatever your riding style, this cycle can match it. Its ergonomically designed handlebars offer positioning options that accommodate both beginners and advanced cyclists.

Comfort Seating

Our oversized, padded seat is so comfortable you might never want to get off. Plus, easy one-touch height adjustment helps users find the perfect exercise position.

Alignment Innovation
580u seat features unique fore-and-aft seat adjustment allowing users to achieve perfect knee to ankle alignment.

Easy On, Easy Off

No more climbing over big center consoles. Our low-profile design makes getting on and off simple.

Oversized Pedals

Our oversized pedals feature an innovative, convenient one-touch strap adjustment. That means more comfort for your riders.
